

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20217

June 14, 2016

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge L. Paige Marvel announced today that the United States Tax Court has adopted rules for judicial conduct and judicial disability complaints. The effective date of the rules is June 15, 2016. The rules conform with the Rules for Judicial Conduct and Judicial Disability Proceedings promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to 28 U.S.C. sections 358. See Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. sections 351-364.

The rules, a User's Guide for Submitting a Complaint of Judicial Misconduct or Disability, and a fillable complaint form are available under the "Rules" tab on the Tax Court's website at www.ustaxcourt.gov.
